

Season 1 Episode 2

Genesis Part 2

Ivan is in a dojo dressed in his monk uniform and he swings a sword at a punching bag and he cuts the targets and he misses a few targets. Ivan said, "I don't get this." Master Augi is in the dojo watching Ivan. Augi said, "If you practice more, you will become the more ideal monk warrior." Ivan said, "None of this makes sense. A week ago, I was still an under privileged high school kid that was in a dead end student career. Now I am here training to save the Ultraverse? My father is here somewhere? Is this all a dream or..." Augi said, "This is all real. It may seem unbelievable at first but trust me, it will become normal eventually. I had trouble transitioning to this life when I first took it but now, look at me." A red light flashes in the place. Augi and Ivan run to a computer terminal and it shows a bank being robbed. Augi said, "The bank is being robbed. I would send you with Mung but he is still in the hospital from before. It looks like Ultraverse Keith is in now. I will pair you with him." Ivan said, "Where's Dirk and Safron anyway?" Augi said, "Safron has been with me for years and she just completed an important mission by bringing you to me. I gave her some time off and Dirk is in another training ward."

Ivan and Ultraverse Keith are in a patrol ship and it hovers over the main Ultraverse city. It hovers over the bank that is being robbed. Ultraverse Keith gets up and he takes out his cyan sword and Ivan takes out his regular sword. Keith and Ivan jump out of the patrol craft and they land in the robbery scene. They see thugs with viruses for heads stealing gold credits from the bank. The gold credits are being loaded into a helicopter. Keith said, "I will go after the helicopter and you go inside and see if there are anymore thieves in there." Ivan runs inside the bank and there are virus thugs with weapons and they are still keeping hostages pinned down." Ivan arms his sword at them. Ivan said, "Never fear, Ivan is here to save you." The viruses crowd around Ivan. Ivan waves his sword around and the largest virus thug grabs onto the blade of Ivan's sword. The virus grabs it out of Ivan's hand and he crushes it and molds it into a cube and he places it in Ivan's hand. Ivan said, "I don't need a sword. I know Monk-Fu or whatever it is called." Ivan swings his arms around and tries to do Kung-Fu moves. The virus thugs laugh and the lead virus said, "Don't you know who I am?" Ivan said, "I'm new here so should I?" The lead virus said, "I am Convind. I am the greatest virus known in the Ultraverse. I can make you sick for the rest of your life. I can bend your world until you won't know what's what anymore." Ivan tries to run out of the bank and he bangs on the front door and it is locked tight. Ivan turns around and the thugs crowd around him. Ivan yells, "Super Human or something, save me!"

A vent breaks on the ceiling and Ultraverse Keith falls in the bank and he slashes one of the thugs off with his cyan sword and he slashes off another. Ultraverse Keith aims his sword at Convind. Keith said, "This is what you resort to now? I thought you were better than this." Convind said, "You don't know the half of me. I am better than everyone else so I can steal all the credits in the bank and take the position of King of the Ultraverse with all this money." Keith said, "That won't happen." Convind said, "You think?" Convind takes out a rapier and he duels Keith with it. Keith fences with Convind. Keith waves his sword and spins it and the rapier flies out of Convind's hand and it gets stuck in the wall. Keith slashes Convind's pockets and coins and gold pour out. Convind looks at his watch and he said, "Oh boy, I better get going. My show is on right now. I think it is that Makeover show. I should watch that since I will be giving one to the Ultraverse." Convind smashes out the doors. Ivan said, "Who was that guy?" Keith said, "That's Convind. He is an anthropomorphic virus. No one knows who created him. He was created a few months ago and he's been causing trouble all over the Ultraverse. He has plans of eventually reaching the universe we are from and taking it over. I doubt that will happen though. I am sure there is more we can show you."

Ivan, Dirk, and Safron sit in the dojo and Dirk said, "This is awesome. We get to watch a movie." Ivan said, "I don't think it will be great." Keith sets up a projector and he puts a film reel on. Keith said, "This is a documentary about Convind and what he has done." Black and white grainy footage comes on the screen of Convind being a bully to elves. He grabs elves and he pours potions on them that makes them sick to a point where they don't know who they are. A voice said, "Convind was created at an unknown place and time but what we do know is that he has devastated the elf worlds of the Spiris Coralis Universe. He has even stolen from poor families in ancient universes and he gives them to their respective kings or pharaohs or even emperors." Convind uses more potions and he makes all sorts of people sick and confused and he takes their things. An evil emperor grabs a bunch of gold and he thanks Convind for bringing it to him. The narrator said, "Even the film industry in several universes have been impacted." Old cartoons appear showing them trying to fight Convind by all sorts of means and losing to him and getting drenched in the sickness potions. The Narrator said, "Several universes have been shut down permanently due to this guy. He rids places of their goods and resources. He could even reach yours but thankfully, we have the Ultraverse Monks protecting us." It shows a picture of Ultraverse Keith with two of his monk friends. The narrator said, "Only you can help to prevent Convind taking over your universe. Sknom Esrevartu Eht Nioj." The film ends.

Ivan shakes in fear. Ivan said, "Is that thing real?" Safron said, "It is but don't worry. We have each other." Safron gets close to Ivan and wraps her arms around him. Ultraverse Keith said, "If we practice our methods, we will have this guy defeated in time. I know the most about him and I am a favorite of Master Augi. I shall be the one to lead the assault once we find where Convind is." Ivan said, "The Ultraverse is nearly infinite. How are we going to find where he is?" Keith said, "We need to search ourselves and find reports of him. If we find where he was a certain times, we will have a lock on him."

Convind is in a station in a funky purple, green, and black, reach of space. Convind said, "I think I've done it. I have put fear into all those people. Now that they fear me, they will fall to my bidding." Convind looks into a telescope and he sees police closing down the bank that was robbed. People are putting up warning signs about Convind. Convind said, "I think my plan is strong. I think I have what it takes to..." Convind's butler enters the scene and he said, "I've seen this photo that was shot of that kid that tried to stop you and failed." The butler shows Convind a photo of Ivan. The butler points that Ivan has a Yin-Yang symbol on his belt. The butler said, "I believe that is the Yin-Yang chosen one." Convind said, "That scrawny kid doesn't scare me." The butler said, "You have a serious threat to your plan. Let me show you." The butler takes a book of legends and he shows it to Convind. The butler goes to the section on the Yin-Yang chosen one. There is a picture of a guy that has a resemblance to Ivan and he is sporting the yin-yang. The butler said, "These books of legends is what created you and your life is dictated by them. It says here that the kid you saw is the one that can defeat you and save the Ultraverse from fear and doom." Convind said, "That's ridiculous. There's no way some scrawny little kid could beat me like that." The butler said, "I wouldn't be so sure of that." The butler points out stories of other legendary villains getting defeated by legendary heroes and Ivan is shown as being one of those legendary heroes." The butler said, "You must do something about that kid." Convind said, "I guess I must before this grows into a more serious problem."

Ivan, Safron, Dirk, and Keith are at an outpost in some desert society. Ivan said, "What's the point of this?" Keith said, "There may be something here. I have tracked the paths of Convind and it says he has not been here yet and this is very well a place he may strike. Evidence suggests he doesn't know we are here so he will strike and steal what he can." Keith points out there are people everywhere wearing valuable jewelry." A street rat runs past the monks with a piece of bread and local police there chase after him. The cops stop in front of the monks and the cops said, "Don't let that thief get away." Keith said, "Why don't you guys go after him? You could use the exercise and training." Ivan said, "I guess we have no other choice." Ivan, Safron, and Dirk run for the street rat. They run past all sorts of obstacles from people moving mirrors to kids playing with marbles and they run into the marbles and they slide around on them and they smash into walls of surrounding buildings. Ivan spots the street rat running up a set of stairs that leads to the rooftop. Ivan and his friends run up those stairs and they end up in the rooftops.

Ivan and his friends spot the street rat with the piece of bread and Ivan and his friends jump on the roofs of the buildings. They jump from roof to roof. The street rat stays in one place and Ivan falls over and Ivan said, "I don't think I ever ran so much in my life." Dirk said, "Is it all worth this for a loaf of bread?" Safron said, "Don't you want to prove yourselves?" Safron goes up to Dirk and she said, "You don't want to go back to the life you had before, right?" Dirk gets up and he jumps more roofs and Ivan does the same. The monks get to the street rat and he holds onto the bread. Ivan said, "We don't want trouble. Just give us back the bread." The street rat snaps his fingers and his pet monkey comes out and eats the bread. The street rat said, "What bread?" Dirk said, "Don't play stupid with us. We know the truth and we will arrest you and take you to an old sweaty prison." The monkey said, "I think you are going to see the same." The monkey unzips himself revealing he is Convind in a disguise. Convind takes out a cloak and he throws it over Ivan and his friends and Convind turns the cloak into a sack and he zips away with Ivan and his friends." Keith sees Convind running off into the desert and Keith gets into a patrol craft and he hides around things in the city and in the desert and he sees Convind going into a tear drop shaped rocket and it zips into the sky." Keith follows it and it leads him to a strange part of space. He sees the tear ship lands in a space station that looks like Convind's head.

Keith turns on the computer in the craft. Keith said, "Master Augi." Augi appears on the screen. Augi said, "What is it, Keith?" Keith said, "Master Augi, Convind has kidnapped Ivan, Safron, and Dirk and has brought them to a space station that looks like his face and it is in a strange part of space. I am in the Veraxus Meraxus Universe. We must storm the stronghold and take down... There are fighters here. They have spotted me." Convind's fighters come out and they fire plasma blasts at Keith. Keith maneuvers around them and he tries to activate the weapons on the craft. Keith gets a message that reads, "Weapons Malfunction. Can Not Compute. Try again later." Keith said, "Try again later?" Keith gets hit by a plasma blast and it damages the outer hull of the fighter. Keith said, "Where are the shields? Let me guess, those are down too." The screen displays a message that says, "Shields will activate in 30 seconds." The timer counts down. Keith dogfights with the enemy fighters and he flies around them. Keith makes two of the fighters lock on and follow him. Keith spins his fighter around and he flips it around and the two fighters that are onto him crash into each other and explode. Keith smiles and he said, "If you are so smart than how come I just destroyed two of you?" Keith keeps flying into an outer orbit of the station. Keith sees the timer is down to 3...2..." Keith said, "This is good. It looks like I'm in the safe." Just as the timer gets to 1, a plasma blast hits the weak point of the ship and Keith's ship explodes and Keith is stuck out in space. Keith said, "How come I am still alive? I should be dead right now. I guess this is not real space then. I guess this is just some strange place that looks like space. That would explain those bizarre textures though." Keith gets captured by one of the fighters and is brought to the station.

Ivan wakes up and he is in a cell in a high tech prison. Ivan said, "Where am I?" A virus thug dressed in white walks down the hall and he said, "Here's your food for the day." The virus takes out a hose and he fires a stream of gruel at Ivan and Ivan gets drenched in the gruel. Ivan said, "What else is there?" The virus said, "I hope you like gruel because it is all you will be eating for now on." Convind enters the hall and he confronts Ivan. Convind said, "Ivan, right? I am glad we get to meet again. I was so ignorant last time. I didn't know you were the Ivan." Ivan said, "Neither did I until recently." Convind said, "I know I scared you a lot last time and I am sorry for that. I didn't know you were someone important. I have a deal for you. I understand you are powerful and those monks you've been hanging out with have stopped you from becoming the thing you truly are. You truly are something unique. You really are a work of art and you deserve to be known for it. You should appear on coins and money and stamps all across the Ultraverse." Ivan said, "Your offer does sound generous but what is really in it for me?" Convind said, "I know where your father is." Ivan's eyes go big. Ivan's eyes go back to normal and Ivan said, "How could you know my father. You didn't even know who I am and I don't know what we're doing here but something tells me it's wasting time." Convind said, "There is a lot about you. You have been in the Ultraverse News last week and they said your father was dead. I know he is not. You don't think he's dead and neither do I. If you join me, you will no longer be constrained and you can be yourself and you can bring peace to the Ultraverse. You can make things as you like and no one will ever mess you over again like that principal you had. We don't have to be adversaries. We can be friends. Isn't your motto something like that?" Ivan said, "That does not sound like a bad deal you have there." Convind said, "You want to see the rest of the place?"

Ivan and Convind stand on the bridge of the station. They look into the bizarre space. Convind said, "This is where most of the work is done." Convind presses a button and TVs come up. Convind said, "We have computers here that run anything known to man. They even have that Looking Glass 99 you are probably used to." Ivan said, "Looking Glass NX is the one I like now." Convind said, "I guess I will get that one." Ivan said, "Where are my friends?" Convind said, "I will show you to them." Convind shows Ivan to a swampy marsh that is a prison. Safron and Dirk are locked in clumps of moss. Ivan goes to his friends. Ivan said, "You have to hear me out, this Convind does not seem like that bad of a guy. Maybe he can help us." Safron said, "Don't listen to him, Ivan. He is just manipulating you so you will help him do his bidding. He does not care about you at all." Dirk said, "This sounds like something out of a lame movie I saw once but, yeah." Safron said, "Ivan, I love you but I won't if you come to terms with this greedy villain." Ivan said, "You love me?" Safron said, "Of course I do. Why do you think I was so interested in joining you back in high school." Ivan gets a flashback from part one where Safron shows interest in Ivan. Ivan said, "How could I have been so blind? I know there is something more here than just all this flashy stuff. Thank you Safron. I have made up my mind."

Ivan returns to the bridge and Convind is watching a movie on one of the screens. Ivan said, "I have thought about what you offered me and the answer is no. I will not bend to your whims." Convind said, "What a shame. We could have had something. Now that you have rejected me, I am going to make you sick to a point where you won't know who you are anymore." Ivan looks at the screen and it shows surgeon robots surrounding Keith. Ivan said, "I didn't know Keith starred in a surgery movie." Convind said, "That's not a movie. That is live footage from my surgery room. Keith is having a blast down there." Keith is squirming on a table and a TV is placed up to his face and it shows the first Star Chest prequel and it shows Bar Bar Jinx acting like an idiot. Keith screams. Ivan said, "You must end this torture now!" Convind said, "Or yet." Convind holds a potion behind him and he swirls it around. Convind throws the potion at Ivan and Ivan happens to miss and the potion singes the tip of his hair. Ivan sees his sword is under the computer seats and Ivan grabs his sword and he duels with Convind.

Ivan and Convind duel with swords and Convind stops and he points out the window. Convind said, "Is that a transport filled with Ultraverse Monks?" Ivan said, "Good attempt at getting me to turn around and look." Convind said, "No, really look." Ivan said, "That would never happen." The Monk transport crashes behind Ivan and it smashes the window completely and monks pour out with their swords. Convind sends out his thugs and the monks battle the thugs. Roswell (anthropomorphic blue macaw parrot) wraps his wings around his sword and he said, "Gold team, follow me." Roswell and a group of monks run down a hall and there are security robots and turrets guarding the halls. The monks fight off the security robots with their swords and Roswell finds the swampy room and some of the monks go in there to rescue Dirk and Safron. Roswell and a few other monks walk down a different hall and they stop at a directory sign. Roswell said, "Now, where do we go if we want to find our Keith?" The map has a picture of Keith's face at the surgery ward. Roswell said, "I guess it is off to the surgery ward."

Roswell kicks down the door to the surgery room and the robots in there see Roswell and the monks. They take out highly advanced machine guns. They rapidly fire around the place and the monks hide behind walls. A monk holds his sword and tries to block the gun fire and the gun shoots up his sword leaving his sword as Swiss cheese. The monk cowers away. Roswell said, "There is one way out of this. At the count of three, Code Del Detate. Three, two, one..." Roswell and all the monks jump out at the same time and they throw their swords and they destroy all the evil robots in the place. Roswell breaks the straps on Keith and Keith is free. Roswell said, "There you go mate. You are all free to go." Keith said, "Thanks. I need to find my sword." Keith sees an outline of his sword in a drawer. Keith goes to the drawer and he gets his sword. Keith said, "This is the special cyan sword of redemption and I can see it wherever it is." Roswell said, "Sure, save it for the nerds and geeks. Let's get out of here."

Ivan is still fighting Convind even though he fought off several of the monks that stayed to fight Convind. A few monks get tackled down and Ivan is the last one there. Convind said,

"It is unwise to fight me. You don't even know what my real deal even is." Ivan said, "I know enough. You are just some cruel bad guy that wants to rule the Ultraverse with your sicknesses." Convind said, "You don't know the half of it." Ivan slashes his sword upwards and Convind pushes Ivan off and Ivan falls off the edge of the bridge and he grabs onto the side and he looks down and sees a bottomless pit. Ivan holds on and he sweats and he loses his grip on the edge. Convind said, "You see. I don't have to do anything more. That sweat of yours will do the rest of the work for me." Ivan struggles to grip onto the edge and his hands and arms move around rapidly and he falls off the edge. Convind stands victorious and Convind said, "I did it. I defeated the Yin-Yang chosen one and the only thing that could stop me from ruling the Ultraverse. I guess the legends are wrong."

Ivan hovers back up and Convind said, "What the?" Ivan is riding on Roswell. Ivan grips his sword and Convind said, "How did I not see this?" Ivan said, "You are an idiot, Convind." Roswell dashes into Convind and Ivan slashes his sword through Convind's head and it explodes into several particles. The body falls down and it melts into a purple goo. Ivan said, "What was that thing?" Roswell said, "He is defeated for now. I think we will have to close this place off." Monks put yellow caution tape around the place. A sly looking monk said, "Master Augi has left me in charge of this place for the time being." Roswell said, "That sounds fair. I guess we can leave."

Ivan is back at the dojo with his friends. Augi places a medal on Ivan. Augi said, "I am impressed with your talent. You fought against Convind and won. No one has done that yet. I will watch your career with great interest." Safron jumps and she kisses Ivan. Mung wheels his wheelchair in the dojo and Mung said, "You never ceased to amaze me, Ivan."

Augi enters his secret office that is private and only he can enter. Augi turns on his computer and the sly monk is on the screen. Augi said, "Baxon, have you collected the samples?" Baxon said, "I have sir. I have contained the goo from Convind in this tube and I have found some of the particles that exploded when Ivan brought his sword to him. We can restore Convind in a matter of months." Augi said, "Good. See to it. I think my plan is starting to fall into motion."
